

Make a flying start with A Level law

You have chosen to study a great subject! In ALevel Law We will be learning about many aspects of the subject including criminal offences including Assaults, Grievous Bodily Harm and Murder! Additionally, we will be looking at law relating to personal injury claims and legally binding contracts. However to begin with we will look at how the legal system operates and how offences and disputes are dealt with by the courts.

To get a flying start in your studies please complete the following activity;

- Research the internet and find out what the roles are of both Barristers and Solicitors. Write a short paragraph explaining each.

You will find many references and sites to get relevant information. The link below may be useful.

<https://www.thelawyerportal.com/free-guides/difference-between-solicitor-and-barrister>

- ‘Legal Executives’ are another type of practising lawyer. You could also find out about their role and write a further paragraph.

We look forward to seeing you in the new term.