

Privacy Notice (How we use employee information)

The categories of information that we collect, hold and share include:

- personal information e.g. name, date of birth, contact details;
- personal information under special categories e.g. medical information to allow the College to support employees in their work;
- work related information e.g. holiday requests, induction, lieu sheets
- performance management information e.g. lesson observations, student outcomes
- professional development e.g. PDRs, training records
- references e.g. employment reference from previous employer;
- evidence of right to work e.g. passport;
- Identification information e.g. driving licence, utility bills, driving licences

Why we collect and use this information

We use your data:

- to facilitate pay, pension contributions and meet commitments to HMRC
- to meet obligations for safer recruitment
- to assist in professional development and performance management
- to ensure equality and diversity in the workplace under the Equality Act 2010
- to ensure the College is meeting its responsibilities under the Employment Act

The lawful basis on which we use this information

- Contractual: when entering employment or during employment
- Consent: when not requirement of employment
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary to comply with the law
- Processing is necessary for carrying out the obligations and rights of the employer or employee
- Processing is necessary for assessment of an employee's working capacity

Collecting your information

The majority of information you provide to us is mandatory. If information is provided to us on a voluntary basis, we will inform you whether you are required to or if you have a choice.

CCTV is present on the College site externally, internally in corridors, workspaces, classrooms and student common areas to help ensure the safety and aid in the prevention of actions that could be of detriment to all.

Storing your data

The majority of information you provide to us will be retained during your employment and for 6 academic years after you leave the College, under our legal obligations or necessity. Other information relating to employment will be retained for up to 5 years depending on the category of data.

Who we share your information with

We routinely share information with:

- The Secretary of State for Education acting through the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) an executive agency of the Department for Education (DfE)
- Teachers Pensions
- Worcestershire Local Government Pension Scheme (LGPS)
- The Education and Training Foundation (the Foundation)
- Liberata Payroll Services - Mercury HR Payroll System
- Liberata School Employee Services
- Liberata HR Consultancy Service
- eSafeguarding - Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks
- Employers you may apply to

Why we share your information

We do not share information about our employees with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We use the services provided by third parties for HR (Liberata) and payroll (Mercury).

The requirements placed on us by ESFA to submit workforce data in the form of the Staff Individualised Record (SIR) to SIR Data Insights maintained by the Foundation.

To ensure the safety of our students, and meet our obligations as an education provider DBS checks are carried out. The majority of information you will supply directly to the provider of the check.

Data collection requirements and privacy notices:

To find out more about the SIR and the requirement place on us by the ESFA for our workforce data visit:

<https://www.sirdatainsights.org.uk/datacollection>

To read about the information included in this return visit:

<https://www.sirdatainsights.org.uk/docs/ETF-SIR26-Data-Specification-v1.0.pdf>

To find out more about the Teachers' Pension Scheme visit:

<https://www.teacherspensions.co.uk/public/legal.aspx>

To find out more about DBS Checks visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/dbs-check-applicant-criminal-record>

To find out more about the company used for DBS Checks visit:

<http://www.esafeguarding.co.uk/>

The College may amend this Privacy Notice, if however the College substantially changes the way we use your personal information, we will amend this notice to notify you of the changes.