Welcome to A Level Fine Art

Now that you've decided to study Fine Art at A Level, you'll need to do a bit of preparation. This pack contains information regarding the course structure; the summer project, suggested equipment list and websites to prepare you to start your A level in September.

The purpose of studying Art at A Level is to develop knowledge and understanding of:

- Specialist vocabulary and artist terminology when analysing or explaining your own and others' work*
- Theoretical research of a particular genre style and/or tradition*
- In-depth understanding of a variety of media, techniques and processes*
- Development of an idea, concept or issue*
- Recording ideas and observations related to chosen lines of enquiry*
- Communicating a particular meaning, message, idea or feeling*

The table below summarizes tasks you will need to do to meet each objective:

Development of Ideas	Exploration of Media	Recording & Reflecting	Personal Response
-Research a range of artists- collect images, make a visual study, include biographical information and analyze their artwork -Create your own ideas inspired by your chosen artist/s -Show a clear development of ideas- have they been manipulated, transformed and edited throughout the journey	-Explore with a wide variety of media, techniques and processes -Continually review and refine your work- consider the potential and the limitations of the media used	-Take own photographs related to chosen theme/idea -Create a range of observational studies from primary and secondary sources -Use annotation to explain your idea/s and to reflect on your progress	-A final piece plan to document intentions for final piece and explanation -A final piece/s that realizes what you intended to do

Where should I start?

You need to think about the following:

- What subject/ theme are you most passionate about?
- What is it about this subject that is interesting?
- What other avenues could this branch into?
- Will you be able to sustain this theme for a long period of time?
- Can you think of any particular artists that could relate to it?
- Are there any particular styles or techniques that you can explore with?
- Are there any current galleries, exhibitions or events that could be relevant?
- What places, objects or things could you collect or photograph?

Summer Project

---

Over the holiday, you will need to complete the following tasks:

- ☐ To select a theme you are passionate about- this could link to people, places, objects, natural world, environment etc.
- ☐ Visit a gallery or exhibition and document this- photos, drawing, notes, sketches, ticket etc.
- ☐ To collect images and take photographs related to your theme-whole images, sections, close up etc.
- ☐ Create a range of drawings and studies from these and life using a range of different materials and techniques-try as many different ones as possible!
- ☐ Find 2 artists that interest you- it could be their style, use of colour, materials they use etc. Document their work- a copy of their artwork, write some notes to explain it and include biographical information that is relevant.
- ☐ Create a variety of studies from your sources but now try them in the style of your chosen artists- consider the artists style, technique and use of media etc.
- ☐ Use notes/annotations to support your work so far- this could include explanations or reflections.
- ☐ *Document your project in any format you wish- sketchbook, sheets, folder, concertina etc.
