At WSFC we study the following topics

- Socialisation, Culture and Identity
- Youth Subcultures
- Research Methods
- Social Inequality
- Globalisation and the Digital World
- Crime and Deviance

i. Introduction to Sociology

Task 1: Introduction to Sociology

1a. In 50-100 words, summarise what you believe Sociology to be.

2a. Now watch the following video and add to your notes, summarising what you believe Sociology to be. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LK5J0-cM-HE>

Task 2: Morning Routine

2a. Write a list of everything that you do in the order that you do it in, in the first hour after waking up in the morning.

2b. Now consider how your daily routine compares to those of your family and peers. List what you do the same and what you do differently. What does this tell us about ourselves as individuals? Are we born with this routine or socialised into it?

2c. Find the definitions for the following concepts:

- Agents of socialisation
- Socialisation
- Primary socialisation
- Secondary socialisation
- Norms
- Values

ii. Social Groups

A core theme of A Level Sociology is different social groups. You may have come across social differences in a range of Key Stage 3 and 4 subjects even if you have not studied GCSE Sociology. You should be familiar with the concept of culture and identity.

This section is aimed at familiarising yourselves with differences related to social groups, including class, age, gender and ethnicity.

Task 3: Research definitions and complete the following glossary of key terms:

Challenge: Where appropriate, try to provide an example which illustrates the concept.

Age
Ageing population
Achieved status
Ascribed status
Culture
Ethnicity
Gender Identity
Institutional racism
Racism
Sex discrimination
Social Class

Task 4: Complete the following:

Please read the below article and then write two paragraphs explaining whether you think a ban on social media for under 16's is needed in the UK. Try to write one paragraph supporting the ban and one opposing the ban. Then write a brief conclusion stating which side you support and why.
